

MP 04

ACCESS CONTROL PANEL FOR 4 READERS

Makim Access control panels are panels that are used to open turnstiles and doors by giving contact to readers with wiegand output, and at the same time, enable control of multiple readers with TCP / IP and RS 485 connections from a single center.

High Performance

Turnstile and Door Opening

Communication

Makim access control panel for 4 readers is a low cost and high performance access control panel developed for medium-scale access control applications. It can work in Online / Offline operating modes.

MP04 Access Control Panel with 4 readers with high speed operation performance can control 2 doors. 4 readers can be connected to the panel that can control 2 doors. It has a capacity of 100,000 users and 200,000 logs.

They communicate online and offline with TCP / IP, RS 232, RS 485, Wiegand communication portals. 4 wiegand readers can be connected to the panel. Panels are in the network and every report can be taken to the computer with software.

Panel SDKs are provided free of charge to be used in the existing system or to develop the software upon request.

4 pcs Wiegand Reader Connection
4 pcs Exit Button
4 pcs Door Sensors
100.000 Users
200.000 Log Capacity
100 Mbit TCP/IP, 2 pcs RS485, 1 pcs RS232
12 V DC